

Making the Move This Spring?

I can help!

Save yourself frustration, time and money.

Spring is here – and traditionally a time when many families choose to make a move, and many organizations make changes which require families to relocate. It can be stressful, and intimidating if you don't have the right tools, plan and of course – help along the way.

I've helped many people just like you, navigate these sometimes tricky times with less headaches, more options and even a little fun along the way. The first thing to have when considering a move – either to a new home or a new state – is a good PLAN.

I have two informative Brochures available at no charge that will help with your move:

“Plan Ahead” discusses ways you can save time and money when selecting a moving company.

“Moving Made Easy” provides a six-week checklist of things to do to make your move as stress-free as possible.

They're helpful, handy and yours – just give me a call and I'm happy to send them right out to you – that way when you're ready to put your house on the market, or look for your next neighborhood, you'll have some guidelines to help make the transition easier. Know that I am always just a phone call to offer my experience and expertise to get your current home sold quickly and for the right price and find you the new home of your dreams.

Please remember that in our current market – timing can be EVERYTHING. If you've got to sell your current home, please contact me as soon as you have decided to move. That way I can begin to develop a customized marketing plan and provide you with a FREE Market Analysis showing how long it should take to sell your house, as well as the price it should bring. Preparation and knowing what you can expect can bring great peace of mind.

If you're moving to another part of town, or even another state, I can help you find the right property to suit your needs – or connect you with a trusted professional so that you know you'll be in good hands – wherever you go! I have associations with other real estate professionals throughout the country who can provide you with the same level of personal service that you expect from me.

Moving doesn't have to be a hassle with the right agent on your side. Call me today – I can help!
